LEARN & APPLY

Read Matthew 28:16-20. This passage of scripture is known as “The Great Commission.”

- Imagine that you are one of the eleven disciples who heard Jesus speak these words. How do you think you would have reacted?
- When Jesus speaks of “all authority in heaven and on earth,” what does he mean? How is this different from the way you’ve seen others exercise authority?
- What parts of this passage are challenging to you? What parts bring you hope?
- Would you describe yourself as a disciple of Jesus? Why or why not?
- What do you feel you would need to help others become disciples of Jesus?

PRAY

Jesus, you are the hope of the world. Forgive us for the times we have failed to follow you. Remind us you are always with us as we bring others into a relationship with you. We love you! Amen.
